12 departments are tonight under orange weather alert, for risk of rain, and either floods or thunderstorms. From Haute-Vienne to Hérault via Haute-Garonne and the Gard. The department was even in red during part of the afternoon. Two months of rain fell in just 3 hours. 2 people are currently missing in the municipalities of Aigues-Vives and Uchaud.

And the Minister of the Interior Gérald Darmanin will be in Uchaud this evening as more rain is expected early this evening.

After more than 7 months of work, the Beauvau de la sécurité comes to an end. Emmanuel Macron ended the gathering this afternoon, in Roubaix, and made several announcements. The Head of State wants to double the police presence on the ground within ten years, and after strong criticism of the IGP, a parliamentary control body of the police will be created.

From tomorrow, caregivers will have to prove that they are vaccinated to work. An obligation that has motivated some health professionals to demonstrate today throughout France.

And the Champions League begins tonight: Lille receives Wolfsburg at 9 pm. Also tonight: Barcelona against Bayern Munich and Chelsea against Zenith Saint-Petersburg. Finally, tomorrow the PSG will be in Bruges.
