

The News

September 27th 6pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

After electricity, the price of gas will increase on October 1 by 12.6%. Regulated prices have already jumped by 10 % in July. The Energy Regulatory Commission speaks of a historic rise in gas prices on the world market - An increase which is reflected in the costs of the supplier Engie.

It has been confirmed: the probationary penal warning will come into force in January of 2023. The Minister of Justice, Eric Dupond-Moretti, wants this measure to replace the current warning system. Probationary penal warnings will be decided by a court which, for a year, will put the suspects under surveillance.

Emmanuel Macron was visiting Lyon, today at the catering, hotel and food trade when an egg was thrown at him. The President's security task force immediately overpowered the young man who was taken into custody.

Emmanuel Macron announced a tax exemption for tips left by bank card. The implementation of this measure is expected in the coming months.

And the convention for mental health opened today. For two days, professionals in the sector will meet to discuss various topics. The health crisis has had serious psychological repercussions on the mental health of the population. According to a recent survey conducted by Santé Public France, 10% of people questioned have had suicidal thoughts during the year. A figure which increased by five points compared to before. Unions are waiting for strong announcements from Emmanuel Macron, in particular the reimbursement of appointments with psychologists.

Meanwhile, today is not a good day to call SOS Médecins. Doctors have been on strike since this morning. They want to alert the French about the planned disappearance of home visits and denounce insufficient resources.

And to finish: François Florent - Founder and Director of "les Cours Florent" passed today. The theater school created in 1967, has trained dozens of famous actors, from Francis Huster to Isabelle Adjani, including Daniel Auteuil and Edouard Baer. François Florent was 84 years old. He passed this morning at the age of 79.