

The News

November 30th 6pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

The 5th wave of Covid 19 is here. Olivier Veran announces 47,000 new cases in 24. The situation is worsening, says the Minister of Health, who calls for an acceleration of the vaccination campaign for the third dose.

The High Authority for Health gives the green light for the vaccination of fragile children. It recommends starting now for 5- to 11-year-olds who present a serious risk or who live with an immunocompromised person. The High Authority mentioned that it will decide about the relevance of extending this vaccination after having conducted more research.

A video staged as an appeal by General de Gaulle and a speech against the backdrop of the theory of the great replacement. This is the way chosen this afternoon by Eric Zemmour to formalize his candidacy for the presidential election. This expected announcement is rejected by a large part of the political class. On BFM TV Marine le Pen qualifies the speech of Eric Zemmour as "backward-looking and gloomy".

" The country is grateful for its Great Men. » This sentence is written on the pediment of the Pantheon where more than 70 men are celebrated, and only five women, but soon six, since the artist and anti-racist activist Joséphine Baker, goes down in history tonight - and this 46 years after her death.