

The News

December 6th 1pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

The objective of the health defense council at the Elysee that is currently taking place is to “save the end-of-year celebrations”. The government wants to do everything to slow the spread of the epidemic which continues to increase in France. The council is discussing the vaccination of 5 to 11 years olds, focusing more on remote work or even advancing school holidays. On this last point, the federation of parents of pupils, the FCPE does not agree.

The presidential campaign begins for Valérie Pécresse. The candidate invested by the right is in the Alpes-Maritimes today, the department of Eric Ciotti whom she beat last weekend in the primary. The latter recalled that he will support Valérie Pécresse and that he will not join the party of Eric Zemmour.

Eric Zemmour held his 1st meeting yesterday in Villepinte in Seine-Saint-Denis, and it was an eventful meeting. More than 60 people were arrested, including members of SOS Racisme and journalists were assaulted. As for Eric Zemmour, he filed a complaint against the man who grabbed him just before going on stage. The suspect's custody is extended.

Emmanuel Macron will present on Thursday the priorities of the French presidency of the Council of the European Union. The presidency will begin on January 1 and last 6 months. Among the priorities of the Head of State are the reform of the Schengen agreements and climate reforms with carbon taxation among others.

And then the orange avalanche alert in the Hautes-Pyrénées and Pyrénées-Atlantiques has been lifted. Several accidents took place this weekend due to heavy snowfall.