

The News

December 16th 6pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

SNCF traffic will remain very disrupted tomorrow on the South-East axis, as announced by the SNCF, even if the CGT and SUD-Rail have lifted their strike notice. Tomorrow, about one out of two TGV is planned. The SNCF will provide exceptional compensation for all those whose trains will be canceled by offering a full refund and a voucher worth up to 100% of the ticket price. Saturday and Sunday, traffic should be almost normal on this South-East axis, for the first weekend of the Christmas holidays.

"We will be lenient", says Gérald Darmanin about those who have a fake sanitary pass. The Minister of the Interior asks them to report it if they have finally decided to be vaccinated – adding that they will not be sanctioned. At the same time, the hunt for fake sanitary pass networks is in progress. More than a hundred arrests have been made and 110,000 fake passes have already been identified.

The European Medicines Agency approves the emergency use of Pfizer's anti-Covid pill. The treatment can be used by infected adults who are at risk of developing a severe form of Covid. The pill must be administered within 5 days of the onset of symptoms.

"The battle is not over", says the lawyer of Omar Raddad. She welcomes the fact that the court has decided to reopen her client's case. Omar Raddad was first convicted of the murder of Guislaine Marchal 27 years ago, before being partially pardoned in 1996. He has always claimed his innocence. This reopening of the case is the first step towards a possible revision of the trial, after new traces of DNA were discovered in 2015.

Car fatalities have decreased. Last month, the number of deaths on the road fell 14% compared to the same period in 2019. 221 people lost their lives on the roads in November.

And then Max Verstapenn will be the Formula 1 world champion. Mercedes will ultimately not appeal. The German team renounces to the procedure to try to change the result of the Grand Prix d 'Abu Dhabi after a racing incident.