

The News

April 1st, 7pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

Today the images of the attacks at the Bataclan were broadcast at the trial of the attacks of November 13. On the 104th day of the hearing, the court decided to approve the request of the association Life for Paris. The objective was to show the reality of the bloody attacks. Pictures taken by police officers just before the room was evacuated and three sound clips recorded by a hostage were broadcast. For Arthur Dénouveaux, President of Life for Paris, this confrontation with reality is necessary even if it remains very difficult.

Some victims' lawyers were even opposed to this broadcast in the name of human dignity.

The daughter of Richard Berry is on trial for defamation today in Cantal. Her ex-mother-in-law, the singer Jeane Manson, has filed a complaint against her as Coline Berry accuses her father of rape and sexual assault when she was a child. The actor was present at the hearing and has always denied these accusations.

A phone call between Emmanuel Macron and Volodymyr Zelensky. The two heads of state spoke this afternoon. The Ukrainian president asked his counterpart to continue his diplomatic efforts with Russia to obtain, in particular, the conditions for a humanitarian operation in Mariupol.

Which opponents will the French soccer team face at the World Cup in Qatar? The draw is taking place right now.

And then the orange weather alert for snow and ice is changing: Only 19 departments are now concerned; Normandy is no longer under alert. On the other hand, Corsica is now in orange. The alert also remains in the departments going from the south-west to the Alps.