

The News ©
June 10th, 8am
by Emma Phillips

Video surveillance footage of the Stade de France on the day of the Champions League final was automatically deleted. This is what was said yesterday by an official of the French football federation during his hearing before the Senate. The French authorities did not make any request to prevent this type of automatic destruction from happening, which is provided for by law.

Donald Trump is considered responsible for the assault on the capitol in the United States. The vice-chair of the special committee said that Trump "lit the flame" of the attack. On January 6, 2020, an insurrection in Washington caused the death of 5 people.

The trial on the Paris attacks of November 13, 2015 enters its final stage today. This afternoon, the national anti-terrorist prosecution team will wrap up what has been a marathon two days of indictments at the special assize court of Paris. The floor will be given to the defense from Monday and for two weeks. The verdict is expected on June 29.

A 14-year-old girl has been found dead in Saône et Loire. A fellow school pupil was taken into police custody yesterday and confessed to killing her. The victim's body was found yesterday morning in the village of Clessé. She was the girlfriend of the prime suspect. The boy stated that he "got hold of a knife" before going to find the victim. The two had a conversation before he killed her with several blows from the weapon.

The campaign for the weekend's legislative elections ends tonight at midnight. Candidates will no longer have the right to speak about the polls or any other aspect of their campaign. The first round of votes takes place on Sunday.

And finally to football and France has qualified for the under-21 Euro championship despite a 3-3 draw last night against Ukraine. The championship will take place next year in Georgia and Romania.