

The News

October 21st, 6pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

"The first objective is to lower the price of gas", said Emmanuel Macron at the end of the European summit on energy. A project to cap prices will also be implemented in the next few days. He also congratulated the unity of the 27 to reduce European dependence on Russian gas. It now represents 7% of European imports against 40% before the start of the war in Ukraine.

Emotion and remembrance today in Fouquereuil in the Pas-de-Calais. A tribute was be paid this afternoon to Lola in her parents' village. The body of the 12-year-old teenager was found last week in a trunk in Paris. Her funeral will be celebrated Monday in Lilaire, also in the Pas de Calais. In a press release, her parents called for respect and dignity, away from political and media agitation. As to the main suspect, the 24-year-old woman from Algeria, she was indicted and imprisoned.

A new call has been launched by the CGT to defend wages. After a first mobilization on Tuesday, the CGT announces 2 new days of strikes and interprofessional demonstrations on October 27 and November 10 with already the support of Fabien Roussel from the left. The national secretary of the Communist Party calls for demonstrations alongside the CGT.

A few hours before the All-Saints holidays, the situation in gas stations is improving. Only 17% of them are experiencing supply problems. The government has also asked the prefects to put an end to orders of rationing.

And a supporter of the OM is indicted for attempted murder. He is accused of having fired a rocket in the stands of the velodrome during the Marseille-Frankfurt match as part of the Champions League on September 13th. A 65-year-old German supporter was seriously injured.

And then soccer again but on the field this time, with the beginning tonight of the 12th day of Premier League. The PSG will be in Ajaccio. Kickoff at 9pm. For the occasion, the Parisian coach Christophe Galtier will face his son Jordan, who will be present on the Corsican bench as assistant to the Ajaccien coach.