

The News

January 11th 1pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

Six people were stabbed at Gare du Nord in Paris. The attack took place early this morning, shortly before 7 a.m. The assailant was arrested by the police and is in critical condition after being shot in the chest. An investigation has been opened to determine the identity of the attacker and his motivations. For the time being, the anti-terrorist department is not involved.

After the presentation of the pension reform, the Medef welcomes "the pragmatic and responsible decisions" taken by the government. The employers' organization insists on the need to work longer. In parallel, the reaction of the Nupes is diametrically different: In a press release, the alliance of the left speaks of a reform that will penalize all employees. The left and the trade unions are calling for a day of mobilization on January 19th.

Improving dictation results in CM1 and CM2 is the plan of the Minister of Education. Pap Ndiaye wants to improve the students' spelling, as there is an increase in shortcomings, in particular when entering middle school. One in four pupils does not have the required level in French, according to the results of the national assessments taken at the start of the school year.

And the winter begin start today. A period of promotions in a context of inflation. Customers have until February 7.

What does the future hold for Noël le Graët? He is accused of sexist behaviour and sexual harassment. The executive committee of the FFF is meeting at the moment. While many personalities from the world of soccer ask Noël le Graët to resign, his mandate is due to end in December of 2024.

And also in soccer, today is the 18th day of Premier League. Among tonight's games there will be, Nantes-Lyon, Troyes-Marseille, Brest-Lille and the PSG receives Angers. This match will be marked by the return of Lionel Messi after his world title.