

The News

February 13th 1pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

The objective of the inter-union is to “stop the country” on March 7th with a major plan of mobilization against the pension reform. Before that, the unions call for a new day of action next Thursday.

Meanwhile, the debates on the text resume at 4 p.m. in the Assembly and are expected to end on Friday.

The investigation continues three days after the road accident involving Pierre Palmade in Seine et Marne. The comedian was driving under the influence of cocaine. The 3 people who were in the car he struck are hospitalized in critical condition. 2 passengers were present in the vehicle of Pierre Palmade and fled the scene after the accident. The Ministry of the Interior calls on them to turn themselves in.

And it was supposed to stop at the end of the month, but the allowance will continue for a few more weeks. The 100-euro fuel allowance put in place by the government has been extended until the end of March. This was confirmed by the Minister of the economy, Bruno Lemaire. The 10 million lowest-income drivers who use their car to go to work can request this allowance.

And then soccer: Kylian Mbappé is back in training with the PSG. After resting due to an injury for 2 weeks, the striker was alongside his teammates this morning at the Camp des Loges. He may even be part of the team that will face Bayern tomorrow in the round of 16 first leg of the Champions League.