

The News

April 6th 6pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

There were incidents on the sidelines of the Parisian demonstration against the pension reform. Demonstrators targeted la Rotonde, the restaurant where Emmanuel Macron celebrated his victory in 2017. Clashes broke out with the police. According to the CGT, 400,000 people joined the Paris protest, which is a little less than last week.

And there will be no more requisitions of employees at Total Energie in Gonfreville L'Orcher. This was decided by the administrative court of Rouen, which suspends the decree of the Prefecture of Seine Maritime. The court considers that it is "a manifest violation of the right to strike". The CGT indicates that the shipments of fuels are once again stopped on site. The strike continues at least until tomorrow midday.

The themes of Europe Ecology les verts were debated today in the National Assembly. Among the bills submitted, is a text allowing better compensation for homeowners whose homes are affected by the drought. Another measure consists of a ban on private jet flights on French territory.

A one-on-one discussion between Emmanuel Macron and Chinese President Xi Jinping in Beijing. "I know I can count on you to bring Russia to its senses and everyone to the negotiating table," said the French president. Xi Jinping says he is ready to call Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky.

A 14-year-old boy from Haut-Rhin was presented to an anti-terrorism judge after 48 hours in police custody. He is suspected of having wanted to commit a violent act in the name of Isis. The search of the family home revealed several explosive products. The teenager also downloaded propaganda videos of the Islamic State organization, and he was in virtual contact with sympathizers of the terrorist organization.

And then in soccer, Franck Lampard becomes interim coach of Chelsea. The Englishman will lead the first team until the end of the season. Franck Lampard, historic player of the club, has already coached Chelsea from 2019 to 2021 .