

The News

April 25th 6pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

He came to talk about health. Emmanuel Macron is in Vendôme in the Loir et Cher where he is currently taking part in a meeting with caregivers. A trip under high security, as the head of State was greeted earlier by a concert of pans from a hundred demonstrators who were kept away by security services.

He admits it was a mistake. The Vice-President of the Mayotte Departmental Council Salime Deré apologizes after his controversial statement concerning the Wuambushu operation. He had mentioned the killing of delinquents in order to fight trafficking and illegal immigration affecting the French department. The elected representative of Mayotte clarified that he did not truly mean that.

Pierre Palmade may soon leave the hospital of Villejuif. According to information communicated by BFM TV, the actor will be transferred to the Bordeaux University Hospital. Two months after the road accident he caused under the influence of cocaine in seine et marne, the comedian remains indicted for homicide and involuntary injuries and placed under judicial supervision.

We lost a free spirit, a man of books and commitment, stated Emmanuel Macron, after the death of François Léotard. The former Minister of Defense and Culture died at the age of 81. he had also been deputy of the Var and mayor of Fréjus during his career marked by legal troubles. François Léotard had been sentenced in March of 2021 to two years of a suspended prison sentence for complicity in the abuse of corporate assets in the Karachi case.

And then a word of sports: At Wimbledon, Russian and Belarusian tennis players will be allowed to compete this summer as neutral athletes. This is what the organizer of the British tournament has decided in agreement with the government. In parallel, the tournament is committed to helping Ukraine; a donation of one pound will be made for each ticket holder, which will result in a contribution of more than half a million pounds, i.e. more than 500,000 euros.