The News
April 28th 7pm©
by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

The autopsy has revealed that the 5-year-old girl found dead on Tuesday in Rambervillé in the Vosges was not raped. The analyzes carried out on the body of the victim, found in a garbage bag, rule out this hypothesis – without, however, determining the exact circumstances of the little girl's death. The alleged murderer, a 15-year-old teenager, will be put on trial for murder and was placed in pre-trial detention last night.

3 weeks after the collapse of a building on rue Tivoli in Marseille, a judicial investigation for manslaughter has been opened, as announced by the prosecution. This comes after an initial investigation carried out by the Criminal Brigade, which established that the explosion that caused the disaster was due to a gas leak. 8 people were killed in this tragedy.

She wants to establish a dialogue with the unions. Elisabeth Borne will send invitations to the social partners next week after months of tension linked to the pension reform. Today in the Yvelines, the head of government has reiterated her desire to promote social dialogue in order to prepare a new work life pact in the months to come.

And they were around 20 candidates. And in the end, it is Intersport that was chosen to take over Go Sport. The Grenoble Commercial Court followed the unanimous opinion of the public prosecutor's office, creditors and employees. The deputy prosecutor specifies that 72 stores and 90% of jobs will be saved with this transaction estimated at 35 million euros.

There is a heat wave in southern Europe. After Spain, which yesterday broke the heat record on the continent for the month of April with almost 39 degrees, this time it's Portugal's turn to suffocate. Temperatures came close to 37 degrees yesterday. This is unheard of in the country within the past 78 years.

And then be careful on the roads. There is already a lot of traffic this evening before the bank holiday of May 1st. Ile de France is red in the direction of departures but green everywhere else.