

The News

June 8th 1pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

There was a knife attack against children in Haute Savoie. It happened this morning in a park near Lake Annecy. At least 7 people including 6 young children were injured. We do not have more information on the incident for the time being.

And following this tragedy, Prime Minister Elisabeth Borne changed her schedule to be present in Annecy.

The kidnapping alert is still active in France to try to find Malek. The 8-year-old girl who was allegedly kidnapped by her father in Dunkirk. They have not been seen for more than 24 hours. The fugitive's partner was found dead in her home. The police had intervened a few hours earlier for an argument and the victim had filed two complaints for domestic violence.

The Liot parliamentary group withdraws its text concerning the revocation of the retirement at 64 - A text which had been stripped of its amendments concerning the age of departure, declared inadmissible by the President of the National Assembly Yaël Braun-Pivet. A decision strongly criticized. The Liot group denounces "an unprecedented attack against the rights of Parliament", "under pressure from the executive".

Global warming is reaching an unprecedented level, according to a new international study which denounces the increase in greenhouse gas emissions. Gas emissions are reaching an unprecedented level and increasing global warming. Scientists warn that humanity is facing a "critical" decade.

And then tennis at Roland-Garros: The women's semi-finals will take place this afternoon. At 3 p.m., Muchova will face Sabalenka, followed by the world number 1, Swiatek, against Haddad Maia.