

The News

September 28th 1pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

Emmanuel Macron is in Corsica. The Head of State spoke earlier in front of the elected officials of the island, and he was open about the institutional status of the territory.

He also used the word "autonomy", hoping that this new stage will allow Corsica to retain its soul, while remaining within the boundaries of the Republic.

A new day of search in the Bas-Rhin to try to find Lina. The 15-year-old girl has been missing since Saturday. 80 gendarmes are mobilized today for new search operations. Several searches bringing together hundreds of people as well as the probing of two ponds have not yet resulted in any clue as to what happened to the young woman.

One of the two inmates of the Fleury-Mérogis remand center, who had escaped about a fortnight ago during a hike in the forest was finally arrested. The 37-year-old man was found by chance by the BAC during a check in a park in Pantin. The second escaped inmate is still nowhere to be found.

After feeling unwell on-stage last night, the actor Pierre Arditi is better and returned to his home. He did not suffer a stroke, according to the tests. The 78-year-old actor will return on-stage next week.

And then the Rugby World Cup continues with a decisive match for qualification this evening. The two teams Japan and Samoa each have one victory and one defeat and still have a chance of qualifying. Kick-off at 9 p.m in Toulouse.