

The News

October 3rd 7pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

Politicians want to resolve the "Bedbug situation". These insects were found these past weeks in schools, movie theaters and public transportation. Minister Clément Beaune will also receive transport operators tomorrow morning, such as the SNCF and the RATP to discuss the issue. Today, the leader of the Insoumis in the Assembly Mathilde Panot calls on the government to act against the proliferation of these parasites. In response, Prime Minister Elisabeth Borne recalled the commitment of the executive to this phenomenon.

The Prime Minister also insisted that the government will step up its action against bedbugs. An interministerial meeting will take place in the coming days.

In the rest of the news: In Guadeloupe, the red alert is lifted today. The archipelago is now under orange alert again due to heavy rain and storms. As storm Philippe passes the Guadeloupean coast, schools remained closed today.

5 months after her last visit to the country, Catherine Colonna arrived in Armenia this afternoon. The Minister of Foreign Affairs came to provide support to the people who fled Nagorno-Karabakh - This enclave, inhabited mainly by Armenians, was hit by an Azerbaijan offensive 2 weeks ago.

And then soccer: 21 years later, the Bollaert stadium returns to the Champions League this evening. RC Lens receives Arsenal for this 2nd day of the group phase. Kick-off at 9 p.m.