

The News

October 30th 7pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

Today is the 24th day of conflict between Israel and Hamas. The Palestinian Islamist movement published a video today, where we see 3 women, presented as hostages. In this short video, which lasts 1 minute and 16 seconds, the women held prisoners call on the Israeli government to conclude a prisoner exchange with Hamas to obtain their release. This comes as the Israeli army intensifies its offensive on the Gaza Strip. The Hebrew state announced that it had struck 600 targets in the last 24 hours.

In France, after storm Céline, another storm will hit our coasts. The depression is expected for Wednesday and should first affect Brittany and the Pays de la Loire. Heavy rain and gusts exceeding 150 km/h are expected.

"The French language is unity and universality". These are the words of Emmanuel Macron this afternoon, as he gave a speech in front of the Château de Villers-Cotterêts, in Aisne, to inaugurate the International City of the French Language - A giant museum tracing the history of French, its evolution and its international influence.

60 associations sound the alarm. In an open letter, they fear a risk of "social cleansing" of the streets of Paris between now and the 2024 Olympics. For the collective, this kind of sporting event will lead to the eviction of homeless people. The collective has called on the actors and organizers of the Olympic Games and asks to "put in place an ambitious policy equipped with means commensurate with the Olympic values".

The OM and the OL are filing a complaint after the violence which broke out last night before the soccer match between the two teams. The Olympique Lyonnais bus was stoned in the early evening before arriving at the Vélodrome stadium. Coach Fabio Grosso was seriously injured in the face. The match was therefore postponed.

And then will Lionel Messi win the 8th Golden Ball of his career? The Argentinean world champion is the favorite to win the prestigious individual title, which rewards the best soccer player of the year. The ceremony will take place this evening in Paris.