France expresses its very serious concern about Israeli military operations in the Al-Shifa hospital in Gaza. The Hebrew State is currently carrying out a raid in this hospital center to neutralize Hamas fighters, despite the presence of hundreds of patients and thousands of civilians. Paris believes that the Palestinian population does not have to pay for Hamas' crimes.

And following this conflict which began on October 7, more than 1,500 anti-Semitic acts or remarks have been recorded in France. We learned today that 10 Jewish steles were found defaced in a German military cemetery in Oise. An investigation has been opened.

It's a case that shook the whole country this summer: The death of Nahel, 17, killed at the end of June in Nanterre by the shooting of a police officer during a road check. The agent in question was released today and was placed under judicial supervision. A case which caused a wave of riots throughout France during a week this summer.

After Ciaran, and Domingos, it is storm Federico which will hit the North of France. Gusts of wind exceeding 100 km/h are expected from tomorrow on the Atlantic coast and even as far as the Paris region. This month many farmers have already been hit hard after the passage of storms in Brittany, Normandy and Hauts-de-France. This morning also, the Minister of Agriculture Marc Fesneau announced a budget of 80 million euros to help those impacted.

And in Pas-de-Calais schools were authorized to gradually reopen today. More than 380 educational establishments will remain closed until further notice at the request of the prefect. The department, under red alert for floods yesterday evening, switched back to orange. Same thing for Haute-Savoie where the red alert was lifted this morning. The department is now in yellow.

And then Antoine Dupont will indeed participate in the Paris 2024 Olympics. The French Federation confirmed today that the captain of the French XV will indeed be selected with the French rugby sevens team.
