Sébastien Cauet counterattacks. The radio host files a complaint for organized attempted extortion of funds, slanderous denunciation and forgery and fraud against unnamed persons. The host is targeted by a complaint for 2 rapes filed by the same young woman. According to the Bourg-en-Bresse public prosecutor's office, the events were allegedly committed in Paris and Switzerland between 2014, when the alleged victim was a minor and 2022.

There was a fatal fire in the Lot. A couple and their 8-year-old child died in the flames early this morning in the town of Gindou, as the fire completely ravaged their house. The bodies of the victims were found in the rubble. 50 firefighters were mobilized to bring the disaster under control - the origin could be linked to a wood stove. No leads have been ruled out for the time being, says the Cahors prosecutor. An investigation is underway.

Also in the news, will the truce in the Gaza Strip continue? We will have the answer to that question in the coming hours. The truce is scheduled to end this evening and so far no decision has been made even if negotiations are underway. Israel says it has proposed an option for an extension of the truce but on one condition: To obtain the release of 50 additional hostages from the Hamas after this evening. The Palestinian armed movement has not responded for the moment.

And Pope Francis was to receive today in Rome victims of a pedophile priest who was particularly active in a Breton school in the 60s and 70s but the meeting was canceled for health reasons. The private meeting will, in the end, not take place. The sovereign pontiff suffers from inflammation of the lungs according to the Vatican. Despite his fatigue, Pope Francis is still expected at the end of the week in Dubai to participate in the COP 28 - the international conference on the climate.

And then Anne Hidalgo has said the following: "The new Twitter has become the weapon of mass destruction of our democracies" end of quote.
