

The News

December 20th 7pm©

by Noele Bouazouni-Prier

The day after the adoption of the very controversial immigration law, the Minister of Health Aurélien Rousseau resigned. He is temporarily replaced by Agnès Firmin Le Bodo - Proof that the atmosphere is tense in the presidential party. This evening the Head of State will speak on France 5, in the program C à Vous.

Emmanuel Macron conceded this morning in front of his ministers that there are parts of the text he does not like, but that they do not go against his values.

So what future now for the text? The immigration law will be transmitted today to the Constitutional Council by Emmanuel Macron himself. The Prime Minister, Élisabeth Borne, recognized that certain measures were unconstitutional and that the text will therefore have to evolve.

The group Servier is sentenced on appeal to pay back 415 million euros to the Assurance Maladie and mutual insurance companies in relation to the Mediator scandal. The laboratory was on trial for aggravated deception, homicide and involuntary injuries. The Mediator was marketed for the treatment of diabetes, but was widely used as an appetite suppressant. It is held responsible for hundreds of deaths and is no longer on the market since 2009.

And then soccer with the 17th day of Premier League this evening. The last before the break. All the matches are played at the same time, at 9 p.m, including PSG-Metz, Lyon-Nantes and Toulouse- Monaco.